

DATA DRIVEN PREVENTION PROGRAMMES FOR FAMILIES

15 March 2022, 9:00 - 9:50 CET

This event will promote the design and implementation of data driven prevention programmes with the support of the Rotarian Action Group for Addiction Prevention (RAG AP), showcasing a toolkit for measuring social impact of addiction behaviours prevention programmes and projects, as well as good practices that encourage action at the family prevention level.

SPEAKERS

Johan Maertens - Moderator

Expert in orthopedagogy and psychotherapy, Chair of the Scientific Committee of the Rotary Action Group for Addiction Prevention, Co-founder of RAG AP

Antonio Molina Fernández, PhD

Associate Professor at the Faculty of Psychology at the Complutense University, Madrid, and in Master's degree in addiction interventions, Salamanca Univ.

Rakoen Maertens, PhD candidate

Researcher in Psychology, Lab Manager at the Cambridge Social Decision-Making Lab, advisor at the Cambridge Centre for Science and Policy

Anna Nabulya

B.A in Social Sciences, Social Administration and Psychology, Makerere University, Kampala - Deputy Executive Director, Uganda Youth Development Link

Lucía Goberna

Expert in policy monitoring, advocacy and international relations, representative of Dianova International

Wadih Maalouf, PhD

Expert in Mental Health and Drug Addiction Epidemiology, Global programme coordinator in the Drug Prevention & Health Branch of UNODC, Vienna